Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.
Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Stictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.
YOUNG MEN
especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect; who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or walked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.
MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, are aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.
ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER,
Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.
A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!
Persons Ruining themselves by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.
EVIL PRACTITIONER NOTICE.
Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.
These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.
MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.
who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.
What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.
DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.
When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him; delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease makes their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."
It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or Unskilful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sign over his galling disappointment.
To such, therefore, DR. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most speedy Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.
DR. JOHNSTON,
OFFICE, 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD.,
left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe the name and number.
☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.
There are so many Pretty Designing and Worthless Imposters advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.
ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.
The many thousands cured at this establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
SKIN DISEASES SPEEDILY CURED.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PUPOSES OF A LAXATIVE MEDICINE.
Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so extensively adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is the best and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.
Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—
For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.
For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.
For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.
For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.
For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.
For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.
As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.
An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

HUMOROUS.

FASHIONABLE young ladies, like letters, require stamps, or the males reject them.

THE young lady at Allemagoozelum, who was up with the lark, is now down with the rheumatism.

A YOUNG gentleman, with an inquiring turn of mind, wished to be enlightened on the following: If brooks are, as the poets call them, the most joyous things in nature, what are they always murmuring about?

LOVERS of tobacco are now designated "Tobaccophagoni," and the gratification of their taste in this respect, which ignorant people call "chawin," or "smoking," is henceforth to be known as "Tobaccophagonism."

A GENTLEMAN, taking an apartment, told the landlady: "I assure you, madam, I never left a lodging but the landlady shed tears." She answered with a very inquiring look: "I hope it was not, sir, that you went away without paying?"

JOSH BILLINGS says bachelors are always bragging over their freedom!—freedom to darn their own stockings and poultiss their own shins! I had rather be a widower once in 2 years, regular, than tew be a grunting, old, hair dyed bachelor only 90 days,

A SOCIALIST remarked "that the dearest sight in the world was Friendship."—Whereupon a young man rose from among the congregation, and said he knew another, a dearer ship still, and that was Courtship. N. B.—He had once been defendant in a claim for breach of promise of marriage.

A POOR fellow was brought before one of the police justices recently charged with being intoxicated. "Well, why did you get drunk?" "See here," was the reply, uttered in a hiccough and accent of a druken man; "what did you give a license for?"

"I sympathize sincerely with your grief," said a French lady to a recently widowed friend. "To loose such a husband as yours——" "Ah, yes, he was very good; and then, you see, such a misfortune is always great, for one knows what kind of a husband she has lost, but cannot tell what kind of a man one will find to succeed him."

THE other day some ladies were out visiting. There being a three year old present, one of the ladies asked him if he would kiss her. He answered "No." "What is the reason you will not kiss me?", "I'm too little to kiss you; Papa will kiss you. He kisses all the big girls." The youngster was permitted to play with his toys.

DOWN on the Wabash the mosquitoes grow so large that they harness them up to sulkies. On the lower Mississippi a man was chased by them until he was forced to turn a large iron sugar kettle over him for protection. They bored through the kettle with their bills and he amused himself by clinching the bills with an ax he had in his belt. After a while so many of them were fast that they flew away with the kettle.

A MAN and his wife were opposing candidates for an office in Wyoming, and the odds seemed to be in favor of the husband but one morning he came down looking weary and sleepy, and formally withdrew from the canvass in favor of his wife, who was triumphantly elected. They say she kept him awake seven nights trying to induce him to withdraw, and finally succeeded. He had a bandage around his head and one arm in a sling the morning he withdrew. He says he would do anything for a quiet life.

ONLY A BOY.

Only a boy, with his noise and fun,
The veriest mystery under the sun;
As brimful of mischief and wit and glee,
As ever a happy frame can be.
And as hard to manage as what? ah me!
'Tis hard to tell,
Yet we love him well.

Only a boy, with his fearful tread,
Who cannot be driven, must be led;
Who troubles the neighbors' dogs and cats,
And tears more clothes and spoils more hats,
Loses more kites, and tops and bats,
Than would stock a store
For a year or more.

Only a boy, with his wild, strange ways,
With his idle hours or busy days;
With his queer remarks and odd replies,
Sometimes foolish and sometimes wise,
Often brilliant for one of his size,
As a meteor hurled
From the planet world.

Only a boy, who will be a man,
If nature goes on with her first great plan—
If intemperance, or some fatal snare,
Conspire not to rob us of this our heir,
Our blessing, our trouble, our rest, our care,
Our torment, our joy,
"Only a boy."

ESPIRITU SANTO.

BY AUNT LAURA.

Farmer Hastings was called "comfortable" by his neighbors, for he was not scrimped in purse, had a good farm and barn and all paid for; a good frame house, and an excellent well of the sweetest water in his back-door yard. His farm was under the best of management; he always got good crops and good prices, and whoever got ahead of Farmer Hastings in a bargain, had good cause to reckon himself a shrewd fellow. He had a nice, stirring, tidy wife, too, with a disposition as sweet as a nut. His family—ah! there was the rub!

Susy, his only daughter, had met with an accident a year or so before. The chestnut span had got a fright, going down the ridge, and run away. The wagon was broken, Farmer Hastings badly bruised, Mrs. Hastings with a sprained wrist. Bob not hurt a bit, as he said, though John, the hired man, said there was a gash in his leg, and another in his shoulder, that you could have laid a finger in, and he had helped dress it for him, though Bob only called it a scratch. But poor Susy, her spine was injured, and she lay in bed nearly a year. The doctor said she was so young and healthy that she would outgrow it; and this summer she was better: so much better that Bob lifted her out of bed every day, and put her back every night; and she sat in the stuffed chair every day as long as she liked, by the sitting-room window; and sometimes she read a little, but, as yet her pale hands must lie idle in her lap—a sore trial to an industrious girl like Susy.

Susy's great comfort was a rose geranium which she had raised from a slip that she had found in a bouquet sent her by Miss Hart, up at the mansion house on the hill. It was a very fine little plant, growing stout and stalkly with thick-set, abundant, and richly fragrant leaves. Bob declared that it grew so finely just because Susy loved it so well. But that Bob! what a trial he was! Not actually vicious you know, but what people call a "trial." He never wiped his shoes; he invariably whistled all over the house; and if he touched anything he broke it, or tangled it, or spoiled it; and yet, after all, it was really wonderful what nice things he could do with those big, clumsy hands of his! He could splice a clothes-line equal to a sailor; he could knock together all sorts of little conveniences for the house, and as for taking care of Susy, nobody could begin to handle her so careful as he. And he could do the best day's work on the farm of any boy of his age in these parts.

Susy improved quite rapidly, and was able to hobble about on crutches, on level ground, at the time my story begins.

Now, as I said before, Bob was an awful trial, and Farmer Hastings was terribly severe. Though Bob was sixteen, he was under his father's law as much as if he had been eight. Especially strict was he in the prohibition of amusements, in requiring faithful church-going, in the observance of fast days, and in the banishment of all the works of fiction from the minds and premises of all under his control. Bob sometimes revolted; he joined a base ball club, he borrowed "Robinson Crusoe," but was detected, and the obnoxious volume condemned in the auto da fe. Once he went to a circus, and got such a flogging with the cruel old horsewhip, that he carried the welts for a month.

Upon each of these occasions, Bob uttered no complaint, but bit his pain back till the blood started from his lips, and vowed to run away to sea; but he looked at Susy—poor, helpless Susy! and waited.

"One of these days I shall be a man; then he won't dare to touch me. I'll wait for Susy's sake."

Farmer Hastings could see no good when he saw one fault, and raged inwardly at the careless, thoughtless lad; and the whole thing culminated one Sabbath afternoon.

Bob had gone faithfully to the services, but when Farmer Hastings drove up to the block, and helped his wife in, there was no Bob. Greatly wondering at his absence, he waited a few minutes, but finally got in and drove off, thinking that he had walked on and that they should soon overtake him.

They soon saw him. About a mile from the meeting-house they caught a glimpse of him in company with two lads of his own age, just entering a piece of woods belonging to one Olmstead, a notorious character, gambler, horse-thief and whatnot, the pest of the quiet town. Farmer Hastings said nothing; but mild Katy, his wife, knew by the way he started up the horses that trouble was brewing. He could have easily called his son, but did not.

When the substantial Sunday dinner, at four o'clock in the afternoon, came on, Catharine Hastings could eat but little; Susy saw that Bob was absent, and said nothing. The iron rule of silence fell upon the house. The dinner was eaten and cleared away, and the cows milked, (that must be done even on Sunday,) and the mellow twilight settled down over the landscape; still no Bob. Susy whispered to her mother, who said "Sh—h!" and Susy held her peace.

When it grew dark, and the lamp was lighted, Catharine went to the door, and peered into the gloom. A figure came up the lane in silence. She stepped out.

"Robert, don't exasperate your father, he is as angry as—you know when."

"I'm not afraid, mother; I can explain it all in a

O. A. BUEHLER, Editor and Business Agent.

Advertisers and others interested will bear in mind, that the regular circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is much larger than that of any other paper published in the County, being read weekly by not less than 11,000 persons.

DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.

The printed addresses which appear upon the margin of every issue of our paper, afford a good opportunity to delinquents to ascertain how their subscription accounts stand with the office. For instance, if the address reads: "John Jones, 11nov68," it means that the said John Jones owes on his paper for two years, up to November 11, 1870. We hope, therefore, that these gentle marginal reminders will serve to secure the payment of backstanding subscriptions, and, furthermore, that the remittances will be promptly made.

We have sundry type and paper bills falling due, which must be met. A few dollars from each subscriber, while not felt by them, will make a large aggregate to us. We cannot afford to carry a large list of delinquent subscribers, and unless the amount be remitted we shall be compelled to make collections at the expense of delinquents.

We renew the offer to receive $2 per annum on all back subscriptions that may be paid between this date and the 1st of January, 1871. Those who desire to save 50 cents a year, will find it to their own interest promptly to avail themselves of this offer.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS

REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH.

Tuesday last was a grand field-day in politics, elections having been held in eighteen States for Members of Congress and other officers. On the result of these electors depended the political complexion of the next Congress. The smoke of battle has cleared away sufficiently to determine the grand fact, that the Republican party is endorsed by the nation, and the General Government, in all its departments, will continue thoroughly Republican. All who have had access to the columns of Democratic newspapers during the fall, will recollect the long columns of GAINS which they counted confidently on making, sufficient to give them the next Congress.

The control of the next Congress, with its patronage and political machinery, would have been a powerful leverage in the next Presidential struggle.—Hence the desperate efforts made this fall by Democratic leaders every where to carry enough members to command a working majority. Special attention was given to the close districts in all the States, where money was expended with lavish liberality, while in other districts dissensions were artfully fomented among Republicans, and the running of independent candidates encouraged, as tenders to the Democratic engine. In a few districts they succeeded by these tactics.

The field this fall was specially favorable to Democratic success. The past has shown, that the Republicans have invariably lost ground at elections held intermediate between the Presidential campaigns. Thus the Democrats swept nearly every Northern State in 1862, while the Republicans recovered the lost ground in 1864. In 1866, the Democrats again gained heavily, the Republicans again retrieving the ground in 868. In these intermediate years, beside the absence of national issues to arouse popular feeling, the Republicans have the disadvantage of being put on the defensive, by reason of local difficulties, divergent views of National and State legislation, &c., all of which work prejudicially. Hence the comparative successes in these intervening elections.

Over and above all this, the Republicans had this year to encounter in full force, for the first time, the bitter popular prejudice against negro suffrage.—While the energies of the Democratic masses were intensified by the appeals and denunciations of demagogues who sought to build up a purely "white man's party," thousands of Republicans recoiled from meeting the new issue, and either reluctantly voted the Republican ticket, or stayed at home.

If, under these circumstances, the Democracy had succeeded in realizing their expectations—if they had gained enough members to control the next Congress—we should have been in no wise surprised.

Now what is the result? In another column we give the details, as developed by telegrams. Let us compare the figures with the strength of parties in the present Congress and the anticipated gains of the enemy. In a full House, 122 members are requisite to a majority. At the close of last session the Democrats had 68, making it necessary to GAIN 54 to get control of the House.—Their published table of EXPECTED gains wiped out this, and piled up some ten more. Thus far they have gained in New York 2, Pennsylvania 5, North Carolina 4, Indiana 1, Illinois, 1, Michigan 1, Wisconsin 1, West Virginia 2—total 17. They have lost in New Jersey 1, Kentucky 4, Minnesota 1—leaving their net gain 14, and giving them but 82 members in the next House. These figures may be slightly changed by additional returns, or in future elections, but conceding every doubtful district to the Democracy, the Republicans will have not LESS THAN FROM 50 TO 60 MAJORITY IN THE NEXT CONGRESS.

More than this. Not only have the people, in these elections, given an emphatic endorsement of the policy of National Administration, and assured a Republican supremacy in the councils of the nation, and therein utterly demolished the hopes and expectations of the Democratic party—but the fact is to be added that in all these elections, so far as heard from, we have lost but a single State, West Virginia. With this exception we hold every Legislature we held last year, and have besides won Democratic New Jersey, and secured Louisiana.

In this grand result, therefore, we read not only a signal Republican triumph, but an utter and irreparable route of the Democratic party. They were bound to win this fall, in order to make even a decent show in the next Presidential struggle. Defeated now, when if ever they should have won, they have a hopeless future before them. The Republican dissensions of this fall will have been healed, while thousands of Republicans, who this fall faltered on the question of negro suffrage squarely confronted for the next time, will be found in line in the next grand battle. Gen. Grant, or whoever may be the Republican nominee in 1872, will walk over the Presidential course, with no one strong enough seriously to dispute the track.

THE rumors of Mr. Cessna's purpose to contest the election in this Congressional district, by reason of alleged frands at several polls, has disturbed the equanimity of Mr. B. F. Meyers, who, in the Bedford Gazette of the 3d inst., thus threatens direful things:

Let the contest be made, and we will show that one-third of the 900 negroes who voted for Cessna cast fraudulent ballots; we will show that the registration in certain districts which gave Cessna heavy majorities, was illegal; we will prove 150 illegal white votes for Cessna; we will call as witnesses the Bread-and-Butter Brigade which subsidized votes for Cessna; we will summon preachers who electioneered for Cessna; we will place in the witness-box women who unsexed themselves to obtain votes for Cessna; we will expose the traitors who sold themselves for Cessna's money and the men who bribed them. we will make witnesses of the men who were promised railroad contracts, if they would vote for Cessna, and others who were influenced in various ways by the railroad question. There are hypocrits and corrupt men in this county who ought to be shown up, that they may be known and shunned by decent men in the future, and a contest will bring these mud-suckers to the surface.

Pretty sharp that in the way of "bluff." But Mr. Meyers should have learned long since that Mr. Cessna is not the man to be "bluffed" by threats, or frightened from a sense of duty by such balder-dash. If he finds that he was defeated by fraudulent means, he will surely contest, leaving Mr. Meyers to carry out whatever programme may be to his liking.

JEFF. DAVIS, like other Rebels, has learned little of the War, and clings to his treasonable sentiments with passionate idolitry. Last week a meeting of Rebel soldiers and sympathizers was held at Richmond to adopt measures to erect a monument to the memory of the late Rebel chief, Gen. Robert E. Lee. Jeff. Davis presided over the meeting, and got off a new fancy in a defense of Lee's treason. He said that Gen. Lee was not educated by the Federal Government, but by Virginia, for she paid her full share for the support of the Military Academy at West Point, and was entitled to demand in return the services of her sons. Jeff. is a man of fixed ideas. The leopard may change his spots, and the dagger of Orion eventually add another kink to the tail of the Ursa Major, but the faith of Jefferson D. is immutable.

FROM various quarters we have indications that the villainous project to rob the Sinking Fund of Nine millions of Dollars, which was defeated last winter by Gov. Geary's veto, will be revived at the next Session of the Legislature. The West Chester Record, whose editor has been elected Senator from the Chester, Delaware and Montgomery district, thus refers to the matter in its last issue:

"The Germantown Telegraph says this bill was forced through the Legislature by corrupt means and we have information that it is to be tried again at the ensuing session, and if vetoed by the Governor it is to be passed over his veto.

We raise the warning now in advance, and ask our cotemporaries throughout the State to join us in the movement to prevent this scheme passing again."

THE correspondence between ex-Secretary Cox, of the Interior Department, and President Grant is published, by which the fact is developed that Secretary Cox resigned because the President refused to allow him to decide the famous McGarahan land case, in which Cox seemed to be interested. The President held that it was a case for Congress to decide, and one so informed Cox. With which that none of his Cabinet should have aught to do with it. Cox's allegation of interference with his reform purposes, is all nonsense.

CRAWFORD county, which usually gives a Republican majority of fifteen hundred to two thousand, elected Judge Lowrie, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, President Judge—while Judge Woodward, another Chief Justice, was defeated for President Judge in Luzerne county, which usually gives from twenty-five to thirty-five hundred Democratic majority. This is a complete turning of the tables.

MESSRS. SHAW, GLASSMYER & BURCHELL have commenced the publication of a daily neutral paper in York, entitled The York Daily, the first No. of which is on our table, presenting a creditable appearance. York is a growing town and ought to be able to support a daily. The proprietors have our best wishes for abundant success.

THE Philadelphia Press has recently donned a new dress, and presents an improved appearance. The Press is edited with signal ability, and is one of the best Republican journals printed. We are glad to know it is well sustained, with a large subscription and remunerative advertising

DEATH FROM BURNING.—Will people never learn to abstain from using coal oil in lighting fires when accidents are almost daily occurring from that cause. The Titusville Herald says that an accident of a very distressing nature occurred at Miller Farm, October 1, by which a very estimable old lady, named Mrs. Moore, came to her death in a most shocking manner. In attempting to start a fire by pouring oil out of a can into the stove, the can instantly exploded, saturating her clothes with the burning liquid. She was immediately enveloped in flames. Her two sons and daughter, in attempting to extinguish the flames, were also badly burned. She lived in great pain until Saturday last, when death released her from her sufferings. The deceased was sixty years of age and had but recently come to the Oil Regions. Her many amiable qualities and goodness of heart endeared her to a large circle of friends, who deeply sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.

FOUR brothers named Kelley, and three other men named Howard, Guss, and Russell, all desperate men, last week got into an altercation with the door keeper of Ames' Circus & Menagerie, at Dawson, Georgia. They were in liquor and demanded to be admitted without the usual fee. The door keeper refused, the desperadoes drew pistols and commenced firing indiscriminately into the crowd. A citizen named Oxford with a child in his arms, was shot through the heart and instantly killed, and a number of by-standers seriously wounded. Col. Ames, the proprietor, hearing the firing rushed to the entrance to quell the disturbance, and received two fatal shots, of which he died the same evening. The desperadoes were all arrested and lodged in jail.

THE distilleries of the United States have a spirit-producing capacity every twenty-four hours as follows: From grain, 739,337 gallons; from molasses, 24,908 gallons; from fruit, 126,971, making a total daily capacity of 910,551 gallons, or at about the ratio of one quart to every forty inhabitants. Truly, this nation neither hunger nor thirsts.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS

REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH

THE NEXT CONGRESS O. K.

THE ADMINISTRATION ENDORSED

ROUT OF THE DEMOCRACY

On Tuesday last eighteen States held elections for members of Congress, viz:—Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Missouri, Florida, Kansas, Nevada, Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin. New York, Missouri, Alabama, Michigan, Nevada, Kansas, Massachusetts, Delaware and Tennessee also elected Governors. Louisiana and Arkansas voted on Monday. These elections determine the political complexion of the next Congress, and although the returns from many districts are indefinite, enough is known to assure a large Republican majority. We annex the result as far as ascertained:

NEW YORK.—The election in New York city passed off quietly, with marked order and no difficulty. The presence of a large number of Deputy U. S. Marshals and 5,000 U. S. troops, overawed the roughs and repeaters; for the first time in last ten years a comparatively fair election was had. The consequence is a heavy reduction in the Democratic majority, which has ranged from 60,000 to 80,000, as circumstances required. Gov. Hoffman carries the city by about 40,000, being a loss of 30,000 compared with 1868. For Mayor and City officers, the contest was between the Tammany and anti-Tammany Democracy, the Republicans having no nominees and generally supporting the latter. Mayor Hall is re-elected by a reduced majority, the Tammany candidates being generally victorious.

The returns from the counties, indicate a light Republican vote, not sufficient to overbalance Hoffman's majority in the city. He is re-elected by a reduced majority.

The Congressional delegation will probably stand 17 Republicans to 14 Democrats, the latter gaining two members. The Legislature is in doubt, but probably Republican.

MASSACHUSETTS.—The Republicans make a clean sweep, as usual, re-electing Gov. Claflin by an increased vote over Adams (Dem.) and Phillips (Labor Reform.) The entire Congressional delegation is Republican as before.

RHODE ISLAND.—Republican throughout, Congress and Legislature.

NEW JERSEY.—The Republicans have made a gallant fight, and carried the State, gaining one member of Congress, and enough members of the legislature to secure a majority and elect a U. S. Senator.

DEAWARE.—The Republicans gained heavily, but not enough to wipe out the 3,300 majority of 1868. The Democrats elect their Governor and members of Congress by about 500. Another effort will bring Delaware into the Republican line.

MARYLAND.—The Democracy and Rebels sweep Maryland, as usual. We had hoped for the election of Judge Smith, in the —th district, but he is badly beaten. His opponent, Ritchie, carries Carroll by 400, Washington by 800, Allegheny by 800, and Frederick by 100. The Congressional delegation will be all Democratic—no change.

In Baltimore, as in New York, the U. S. Marshal had a large number of Deputies, backed by a military force, to preserve order, prevent repeating, and enforce a fair election. The result is a reduction of the Democratic majority of 12,567 in 1868 to 8,691. Tom Swan is re-elected to Congress by over 4000 majority. The Democratic majority in the State is about 20,000.

VIRGINIA.—The Congressional delegation will probably stand, 8 Republicans to 5 Democrats. No change.

KENTUCKY.—The colored vote has largely reduced the usual heavy Democratic majorities. The Republicans have probably carried the 8th district, a gain—the delegation at present being all Democratic.

MINNESOTA.—Republican throughout. Democracy being at a heavy discount in this State.

MICHIGAN.—The returns indicate the success of the Republicans by the usual large majority. The Democrats have probably carried the 6th district—a gain. The State gives 20,000 Republican majority.

ILLINOIS.—The Republicans carry the State. The Congressional delegation will stand as before, 10 Republicans to 4 Democrats.

WISCONSIN.—The Democrats probably carry the 1st district, making the Congressional delegation, 4 Republicans to 3 Democrats—Democratic gain of one.

LOUISIANA.—The State gives 20,000 Republican majority, Legislature largely Republican, and the Congressional delegation solid Republican.

MISSOURI.—The Democrats made no nomination for Governor, the contest being between McClurg and Brown, both Republicans. The Democrats voted for Brown, who carries the State by 30,000.

TENNESSEE.—The Democrats carry the State, Governor and Legislature, and five members of Congress. No change.

We have no definite returns from Alabama, Arkansas, Texas, Florida, Kansas and Nevada,

FRENCH'S CIRCUS SOLD AT AUCTION.—French's Oriental Circus and Egyptian Caravan, which exhibited at this place several weeks ago, was disposed of in Trenton, N. J., a few days since. The proprietor sold it because of pressing business engagements in New Orleans. Elephants, camels, performing donkeys, Shetland ponies and other "living curiosities" were successfully put up under the hammer and were sold at good prices. The large elephant "Empress" was sold to John O'Brien, of Philadelphia, for $5,000. A baby elephant was put up, but the bids rose no higher than $3,400, and the proprietor reserved the animal, demanding $5,000 for her. The train of double humped camels, thirteen in number, were sold for $5,200 to Jacob Reed, of Philadelphia. The same purchaser bought a baby camel for $400 and the camel harnesses and outfit for $160. James H. Maguire, of Trenton, bought a performing pony for $55 that had been held at $400 by Mr. French, and two Shetland ponies were sold to two Trenton men for $125 and $75. The "star" horse of the establishment brought $925, John O'Brien, of Philadelphia, being the purchaser. Other performing horses were sold at prices ranging from $200 to $375.

PARTIAL CENSUS returns from the South are said to show a slight increase in the negro population, but not in proportion to previous enumerations.

GENERAL NEWS.

GOLD on Friday last gold fell to 110, which was the lowest figure it has sold for since July 7, 1862.

AN effort is at present being made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to establish a line of first class iron steamships between Philadelphia and Liverpool.

ARCHBISHOP SPALDING arrived in New York on Monday from Europe. A reception is to be extended to him on his return home to Baltimore.

RECORDER Hackett, of New York, on Wednesday decided that a man has a perfect legal right, if he chooses, to set a trap-gun to catch or kill burglars who may attempt to enter his house.

AT Madrid it is stated that Spain will not permit the sale of Cuba to the United States, or any other nation, on any conditions. Nine thousand additional troops are preparing to leave for Havana.

IT is now stated positively that General Alfred Pleasenton, the present collector of the Thirty-second District of New York, is to be appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

MISS ANN Dougherty was killed on Monday, in Baltimore, by being thrown from a carriage, the horses of which had been frightened by the elephants attached to a circus.

HARRISBURG has a lot of gas lamps for sale—the city government being too poor to supply that town with gas. They will get plenty of gas for nothing when the Legislature meets.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE is said not only to be convalescent, but is rapidly recovering his usual health, and confidently expects to resume his duties on the bench early in January.

OFFICIAL returns of the South Carolina elections show that all the Congressional districts have been carried by the Republicans. De Laye (colored Republican) beat Bowen (white Republican) in the Charleston district.

DANIEL McFarland, whose trial in New York for the shooting of Albert D. Richardson, attracted unusual attention, has been placed in a lunatic asylum by his friends. His insanity has assumed a violent and noisy form, and no hope is entertained of his recovery.

EDWARD G. LEE, Esq., of Frankford, was elected G. W. P. of the Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Pennsylvania, at the annual session held in Philadelphia last week. There are 185 Divisions of this order in the State, and the report made on the occasion showed an increase in the membership during the year of 4,628.

DEATH OF PROF. WOLFF.—On Tuesday week, Rev. Bernard C. Wolff, D. D., died in Lancaster. He was for many years a Professor in the Theological Seminary at Mercersburg, but resigned his position in 1864. He was well known to the citizens of Chambersburg and also to many in the county. He was in his 76th year at the time of his death.

THE FRANKING PRIVILEGE.—The Postmaster General will repeat in his annual report his recommendation for the abolition of the franking privilege, and present the result of the examination now being made concerning the amount of free matter which passed through the mails during a given period. A number of clerks are now engaged in collecting this information.

$2.50 A SECOND.—It appears by the official statements that the average saving of Grant's Administration on the working days of the fiscal year that closed with June 30, 1870, over those of the year preceeding, was over $222,410 per day; being over $9,268 per hour and over $154 per minute; being more then equal to the ex- ters drunning of the whole of the offices of the Treasury in every second of time.

THE highwaymen of the West are again growing extremely bold. Last Friday night the Central Pacific passenger train, bound east, was attacked at Verd, Nevada, by a band of masked highwaymen, who, by their desperate acts, secured plunder to the amount of forty thousand dollars. The same train was again attacked by another band of robbers on Saturday at Independence, and several thousand dollars more were taken.

THE President has directed that a new census of Philadelphia be taken, in consequence of the question made by the city authorities of the completeness of the enumeration taken by Marshal Gregory. No question has been made of the honesty or energy of the Marshal or his assistants, but it is claimed that, in consequence of the absence through the summer of many thousands of citizens, the count of population fails to do justice to the city.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.—No action has recently been taken by our Government in relation to the settlement of the Alabama claims, nor has the British Government made any new advances in that direction. So far as is known our Government adheres to its former position as expressed by Secretary Fish, and the British Government is equally decided in its own course, willing now, as heretofore, to enter into a convention for the adjudication of the claims.

HONORS are easy in Prussia just now. Bismarck and Gen. Moltke have been created Counts. The Crown Prince (our Fritz,) and Prince Charles Prednck, have been raised to the dignity of Field Marshals. Last and most important of all, King William will be made Emperor of Germany as soon as the war ceases. The new Kaiser will outrank all his illustrious ancestors. Success in war is everything. Louis Napoleon, on the other hand, after having ruled Europe for a quarter of a century, sinks back into private life, and becomes a nobody for the rest of his days.

THE late Capital-removal Convention at Cincinnati was a decided failure. Only nine States were represented, by sixty four delegates; of these, Ohio furnished twenty-four and Illinois twenty-four, leaving the others to be distributed between Iowa, Kentucky, Kansas, Texas, Missouri, Alabama, Nebraska, and Washington Territory. No distinguished men were present, and nothing was done of any importance, but the convention came very nearly doing one sensible thing—the adoption of a resolution declaring the agitation for the removal of the National Capital uncalled for and unwise. This was defeated by only two votes, an indication of how weak and ridiculous this movement is.

A QUEER CONSPIRACY.—The New York Tribune tells of a remarkable story of real life in which the characters are all of the most contemptible sort. It is known as the Peck divorce suit, and these are the incidents which follow: A scheming mother-in-law, offended at her daughter-in-law, offers a son $30,000 to divorce his wife. The son, who seems worthy of such a mother, consents. The wife, deservedly bound to such a husband, secretly agrees to the separation on the faith of his promise to marry her again as soon as the mother had been robbed of her $30,000. A rascally book-keeper, worthy of such a master, swears to the commission of adultery with the wife, and the divorce is granted. Very naturally such a husband refuses to remarry such a wife, and quite naturally the wife goes into Court, exposes the conspiracy, and makes humanity blush at its baseness.

Summary of War News

ARMISTICE NEGOTIATIONS BROKEN OFF.

THE WAR TO GO ON.

RIOT IN PARIS.

THE MINISTRY ARRESTED BY THE MOB.

RELEASED BY THE MILITARY.

MONDAY, Nov. 7.—On Saturday, it was officially announced that Thiers and Bismarck had concluded an armistice, the terms being—that there should be a suspension of active hostilities for 20 days from the 4th to the 24th of November, during which an election was to be held throughout France for members of the Constituent Assembly, to establish a permanent government; Paris to receive supplies during this time equal to a day's rations for each day of the armistice; if the new Government fail to negotiate terms of Peace within the 20 days, the armistice to end, and hostilities to be resumed. It was also announced that these terms had been endorsed by Gen. Trochu and the members of the Paris Provisional Government

To-day it is announced that the negotiations have fallen through, the Paris Government refusing to endorse the terms agreed on by Thiers, unless the principle of no cession of French territory should be recognized by Prussia. Bismarck refused to accede to this demand.

It turns out that there is discord in the French councils, not only at Paris, but a want of agreement between the Paris Government, headed by Favre and Trochu, and the Tours Government, headed by Gambetta. The latter is radical, opposed to all negotiations, and in favor of fighting to the bitter end.

A riot broke out in Paris, when it became known that the Government was negotiating for an armistice. The mob headed by Gustav Flourens, Louis Blanc, Ledru Rollin, and other Red-Republicans, surrounded the Hotel de Ville, where the Provisional Government was in session, broke in the doors, and captured Gen. Trochu, Favre, Arago, Picard, Simion, and other leading men, holding them close prisoners for several hours. Picard, Minister of Finance, managed to escape and send word to the military headquarters. The National Guard promptly rallied, recaptured the Hotel de Ville, dispersed the mob before it had made headway, and released Trochu, their commander, and his fellow captives. Picard's prompt action saved Paris a bloody riot, and probably saved the Government.

Trochu then demanded an election by the citizens and military in Paris, as to whether the Provisional Government should continue in power or not. The electors of Paris, by a large majority, voted in favor of the present regime.

Doubtless these disorders, and the opposition of Gambetta and the Tours Government, had much to do with the final rejection of the terms of an armistice.

BRUSSELS, November 5.—The Nord of this city to day publishes a letter from Bazaine, giving the lie to Gambetta's charges and insinuations in his proclamation to the French army. The Marshal indignantly denies any treachery or bargain with the Bonapartists, and reviews the causes which made the surrender inevitable, after an unparalleled siege and unlimited suffering.

THE CAPTURES AT METZ.

BERLIN, November 5.—The General commanding at Metz makes the following report: "By the capitulation of Marshal Bazaine 53 eagles, 541 field guns, ammunition for more than 85 batteries, 800 siege guns, 66 mitrailleurs, 300,000 rifles and sabres and 2,000 military carriages.

THE FAILURE OF THE ARMISTICE.

TUESDAY, Nov. 8.—The Prussian Minister at Washington has received an official telegram from Berlin confirming the previous statements that the negotiations for an armistice were ended abruptly on Sunday afternoon, by order of the French Provisional Government. The assumed cause of the rupture were the refusal of Bismarck to permit free ingress into and egress from Paris, and the taking of provisions into the city during the twenty-five days cessation of hostilities, and the demand of Thiers that the elections for members of the Constituent Assembly shall be held in Alsace and Loraine the same as in other provinces of France.—Bismarck did not expressly deny the latter proviso, although he would not give his consent to it. It is said, however, that the real cause of the disagreement was the utter refusal of the French Government to promise a cession of territory.

The French Minister at London represents that the Provisional Government is confident of yet driving the Prussians from the country, and that the military situation is constantly improving for the defenders and growing worse for the invaders. Six hundred thousand men, he says, are under arms around Paris, and the fortifications will prevent any bombardment of the city. The arrest of Bazaine and his staff, wherever found, has been ordered. The veteran General Changarnier expresses an opinion that Bazaine was not a traitor, but that he was incompetent to command his army, and particularizes the reasons of the surrender of Metz. After the siege was commenced a successful sortie would have been possible any time up to the ten days preceding the surrender. The sorties that were made were only pretences, and accomplished nothing. The French army on the Loire is numerically equal to the Prussians, but is deficient in discipline and war material, and there will be no fight unless the latter make the attack.—American correspondents report a discouraging state of affairs. The troops are are disorganized, all the sorties have been repulsed, and there are serious differences between Trochu and the members of the Government.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 9.—Bismarck makes public his version of the unfinished negotiations at Versailles for an armistice, and states that Trochu refused to agree to the terms of the Prussians, and succeeded in carrying the other members of the Paris Government with him in terminating the agreement. The Berlin Journals warn France that the danger of the destruction of Paris may follow the determination of her Government to continue the war, King William has issued orders that no person shall be permitted to enter or leave Paris. The town and fortifications of Verdun have been surrendered to the Prussians. A general battle commenced yesterday near Orleans, of which no result is yet announced. The troops in Paris are divided into three armies, two of which are to operate outside of the walls. Garibaldi issues an address to his army urging them to go into the fight earnestly, and from his headquarters it is announced that the army is to make a forward movement from Dole to-day.

WHAT HON. THAD STEVENS THOUGHT ABOUT MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.

Mr. Wm. Lambert, First Assistant Engineer, U. S. N., writes to Dr. S. B. Hartman & Co., of Lancaster, Pa., the following: "At the capture of New Orleans, I was wounded in the right leg by a shell. The wound healed up, but a bad sore broke out near my ankle. Several doctors tried to benefit me, but none succeeded. It was then that the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, Member of Congress, saw me, and, on learning the nature of my trouble, told me about MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS, saying, 'it is the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs I ever saw. I use it myself, and I know that it will cure you in a very short period. Try it, my friend, try it. I will have it sent to you.' The result fully justified the high opinion of Mr. Stevens regarding your Bitters, for its use was followed by a perfect cure." Sold by druggists generally. Price one dollar per bottle. Nov. 4—1m

LOCAL ITEMS.

SALES.—D. C. Brinkerhoff has sold 173 Acres of land near Arendtsville, for $3000; Spangler & Bushman purchasers.

FOUND—A small Gold Ring, evidently worn by a little girl. The owner will call at this office.

TEMPERANCE.—The Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance of Pennsylvania, have arranged to hold a meeting of that body in Gettysburg in July next.

COMMISSION.—Wm. B. Meals, Esq., elected Justice of the Peace to succeed Justice Myers, dec'd, has received his commission, and is now ready for business.

☞Rock Creek Chapel, of the Methodist Episcopal Church on Gettysburg Circuit, having been enlarged and improved, will be re-opened, Providence permitting, on Sabbath Nov. 20th. Preaching at 10 o'clock by Rev. Thompson Mitchell, D. D., Presiding Elder of Carlisle District Central Penna. Conference. Services also in evening at 6½ o'clock.

ENTERTAINMENT AT YORK SPRINGS.—The announcement of an entertainment in Odd Fellows' Hall, York Springs, for the benefit of "Geary Lodge," Good Templars, on the 4th and 5th inst., was a mistake. The Entertainment will be give to-night and to-morrow night, (Friday and Saturday, Nov. 11 and 12.) Ten Nights in a Bar Room, in five Acts, will be given, besides Tableaux, Burlesque, Music, &c. Admission 25 cents, children under 12 years 10 cents.

CORRECTION.—In the Common School statistics, published last week, an error occurred in the record of Oxford district, the names of teachers in Reading being duplicated. We annex the correct list for Oxford School district—the term being 6 months, and salaries $30, except No. 1, which is $35 per month:

No. 1. Oxford H. S., Silas C. Delap.
" 2. Oxford Primary, Kate O. Miley.
" 3. Valley, Mary Wolf.

MISS LOGAN'S LECTURE.—Miss Olive Logan will lecture, without fail, to-night, (Friday, Nov. 11,) in Agricultural Hall. We understand that over two hundred tickets have been already engaged, and those who desire eligible seats should secure tickets at once. They can be had in advance at Buehler's Book Store, or at the entrance on the night of the lecture. Tickets 50 cents; reserved seats 75 cents. Doors open at 6.30—lecture to commence at 7.30.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Mr. Joseph Burkee Sr., died very suddenly at his residence in McSherrystown, in this county, on the 29th ult. For some time past he had been afflicted with an abscess in the under jaw, but this was not thought to lead to any serious results. On Saturday morning he was summoned to breakfast by one of the members of his family, and not answering the call, his room was entered for the purpose of waking him, when he was found to be dead. His death was caused, we are informed, by suffocation from the discharge of the abscess.

LITTLESTOWN ITEMS. The Fair of the Littlestown Orchestra last week was largely attended and proved a success.

The Press says that whilst Mr. G. B. Yantis, proprietor of the Yantis House, in Littlestown, was on his way returning home from Baltimore on the 28th ult., the spring of the vehicle in which he was seated suddenly broke, whereupon Mr. Yantis made an attempt to leap from the buggy, and in so doing, unfortunately broke one of his legs.

The finishing shop attached to the tannery of Amos Stonesifer & Brother, Littlestown, was entered by some person or persons unknown, on the night of the 1st inst., and quite a large quantity of leather stolen therefrom.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.—Dr. Gleason is delivering a course of Lectures in Agricultural Hall on Physical Culture, which are well attended. The opening lecture, on Tuesday evening, was delivered to a crowed Hall. The Dr. evidently thoroughly understands the anatomy and hygiene of the human system, is a pleasant talker, and with the aid of a large number of models and diagrams, representing different parts of the body, succeeds in popularazing his lectures. The practical information thus imparted is not only interesting, but ought to be of large service in reforming habits which interfere with proper physical culture and develope disease. The course embraces five lectures —$3 cts admission to each.

INSTALLATION.—On Monday night last, W. H. Tipton, Deputy, installed the officers of "Gen. Reynolds Lodge, No. 180, I. O. G. T.," in this place, viz:

W. C. T., John A. Atwell; W. V. T., Miss Carrie Young; W. C., Mr. Hemperly; R. S., McClellan Hersh; A. R. S., Miss Mary McCreary; W. T., A. W. Fleming; W. F. S., J. Nevin Frey; W. M., F. W. McElroy; W. D. M., Miss Alberta Paxton; I. S., North McElroy; O. S., Samuel P. Weaver; R. H. S., Miss Julia Weygant, L. H. S., Miss Jennie Powers; P. W. C. T., Rev. J. A. Clarke.

On Tuesday night Daniel Gamble, Deputy, installed the officers of "Wm. Emmitt Lodge, No. 54, I. O. G. T.," of Emmitsburg:

W. C. T., A. Ross Hunter; W. V. T., Miss Hallie Shields; W. C., Jos. Troxell; R. S., Miss Julia Zeck; A. R. S., James McGuigan; W. T., Mrs. Mollie Gamble; W. F. S., W. F. Bickley; W. M., Zach. Six; W. D. M., Miss Emma E. D. Motter; I. S., Miss Emma Waddles; O. S., Clem. Guthrie; P. W. C. T., John J. Hunter.

FIRE.—On Monday night last, between 9 and 10 o'clock, our town was startled by an alarm of fire, arising from the burning of the frame stable of Mr. Henry Overdeer, in the rear of his residence on Baltimore street. The fire, when the alarm was given, had made such headway that it was impossible to save the building and contents. By promptly demolishing the surrounding fencing, the fire was prevented from extending to other stables. Mr. Overdeer's stable was new, recently finished, and cost about $300. He loses also a good horse, a cow, carriage and some hay—the total loss being about $500, on which there is an insurance of $100 in the Adams county Company. Mr. John Elsasser, carpenter, had a number of tools in the Stable, worth about $75, which were also destroyed. The origin of the fire is not known.

By reason of the isolated position of the stable, and the calmness of the night, the fire was confined to Mr. Overdeer's stable —no thanks to the Town Council, who seem to have left the town without available fire apparatus. Neither engines, hooks or ladders could be found on Monday night. While the Council are exhibiting commendable energy in the repair of streets, their action in regard to the Fire Engines, &c., is inexplicable, and an outrage on property owners. Either the old engines should at once be put in thorough repair or new apparatus purchased. The present condition of things evinces a reckless disregard of the safety of the town, and should be at once remedied.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The fourth annual meeting of the Adams County Teachers' Institute will be held in Gettysburg, commencing Monday, Dec. 26th. Mr. Wert, our energetic County Superintendent, is making every effort to make it an interesting session. Hitherto we think a mistake has been made in calling in too much foreign aid—gentlemen who have made a specialty of some educational departments, and who monopolized the time of the Institute in illustrating and enforcing their pet theories, ingenious they may be, but often far from practical use. Mr. Wert proposes to correct the evil this year, by calling in requisition the experience and views of the Teachers of the county, who will largely conduct the deliberations of the Institute. We believe the only persons invited from abroad, are Mrs. Randall, of Oswego, New York, who will have charge of the elocutionary department, and Prof. Montgomery, of the Millersville State Normal School, who will give instruction in Penmanship and Drawing.

These Teachers' Institutes, when properly conducted, are important auxiliaries in the development of Common School education, and should be attended by every live teacher. The exchange of views and experience tends to make better practical teachers, and the beneficial results are felt in every school room. School Directors should make it a point, not only cheerfully to grant Teachers the time occupied by the sessions of the Institute, without deduction of pay, but should REQUIRE Teachers to attend. The time thus lost will be fully compensated by improved efficient teaching and discipline during the balance of the term.

REFORMED SYNOD.—The Eastern Synod of the Ref. Church, which had been in session in Mechanicsburg, resolved to remove the Theological Seminary from Mercersburg to Lancaster. The Trustees of the Seminary were instructed to proceed at once to the erection of such buildings as may be necessary for the proper and permanent use of the Seminary on the grounds donated by Franklin and Marshall, and the buildings are to be ready for occupancy at the opening of the next session of the Seminary, the Second Wednesday of September, 1871.

The following is a statistical summary of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church: Ministers, 271; congregations, 635; members 78,283, unconfirmed, 44,275; Baptisms, 8,796; confirmed 1,975; certificates, 1,817; communicants, 65,337; excommunicated, 10; dismissed, 1,126; deaths, 3,231; Sunday school scholars, 34,050; benevolent contributions, $66,780.68.

A discussion of several days was had on an appeal from the action of the Philadelphia Classis, in the case of Rev. Dr. Bomberger. Dr. B., who represents the anti-liturgical wing of the Church, has recently opened a theological school in Eastern Pennsylvania. Rev. Dr. Fisher brought the matter before the Philadelphia Classis, claiming that it was the province of the Church, not individuals, to establish theological institutions. The Classis, which sympathises with Dr. Bomberger, laid the complaint on the table. Hence the appeal. The Synod finally, without expressing an opinion on the merits, remanded the case to the Philadelphia Classis for action.

CHANGES.—Messers Levi Weaver, W. D. Holtzworth, and W. T. Ziegler have bought out the Livery establishment of N. Weaver & Son, and will carry on the business, including Carriage-making, under the firm of Weaver & Co.

J. W. Cress has sold out his Grocery store, on the corner of Chambersburg street and centre square, to Messers John Cress and David Deatrick.

CORNS!—Who has not suffered from Corns, Bunions, Ingrowing Nails, Chilblains, Tender Feet, &c., &c.? Briggs' Alleviator and Curative is a certain remedy. Sold by Druggists. Sent by mail 60 cts. DR. J. BRIGGS & CO. Newark, N. J.

CATARRH!—What disease can be more disagreeable or disgusting than Catarrh? Briggs' Allevanter is a pleasant, cheap and positive remedy. Sold by druggists.

PILES!—Suffer not with Internal Bleeding or Itching Piles. A cure has been discovered! Briggs' Pile Remedies are safe and sure. Sold by druggists

CONSUMPTION!—With the hollow, soul-sickening cough, weakened lungs, profuse expectoration, the debilitating night-sweats, and all other symptoms of this fatal malady, are subdued by the use of Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer, the most appropriately named remedy yet discovered for Throat and Lung Diseases. Sold by A. D. Buehler, J. M. Huber and Druggists generally. tf

ALWAYS AHEAD.—Capt. NORRIS is determined not to be outdone by rivals, and has again added largely to his stock for fall and winter wear. If you want a fashionable Hat, Cap, Coat, Pants, or Vest, for fall or winter wear, or a good pair of Boots or Shoes or any kind of underwear as cheap as before the war—Norris' Head-Quarters is the place, (Arnold's corner) young gents.' If you want a fashionable Tie or Bow, don't forget that Norris is getting new styles every week, and always has the latest. His stock of Hats is the largest in the county and greatly reduced in price, all styles and price. If you want to save money go to Norris' corner. Sept. 16-tf

LOOK HERE.—E. Woodward has come, need, in connection with his Gunsmithing, the repairing of Umbrellas, Parasols, &c., which he will warrant to be better than is done by the majority of Umbrella-menders. Any person wishing work done in this line can leave word at his shop on Carlisle Street, and it will be sent for and returned. Charges moderate. He also has still on hand a variety of Battle-field Relics, of any kind and style, a large assortment of Canes, &c. Call and see him. tf

PRIME OYSTERS.—E. H. Minnigh makes it a point to serve up the VERY BEST Oysters that can be secured in the Baltimore market. He has special accommodations for Ladies and Gentlemen, who will find every thing in strict order. Oysters served up in every style, to suit the most fastidious. Call and see for yourselves.

SAVE MONEY.—Pending the agitation of the Funding Bill, which will evidently depreciate Government Bonds, persons would do well by reading the advertisement of the "Gettysburg National Bank," in another column, and exchange their Government Bonds and realize a handsome profit thereby, and obtain an investment as safe and profitable. tf

A CHANCE FOR BARGAINS.—Messrs. Cobean & Cunningham having determined to close out their stock of Ready-made Clothing, are now selling all kinds of Coats, Pants, Vest, &c, at largely reduced prices—many of them less than cost. Now is the time to secure Bargains. The goods are all first-class and will positively be sold without regard to cost. aug.12-tf

NOTICES OF BOOKS, &c.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for November is a parterularly fine number. With the wilderness of fashion plates, &c., any lady must be pleased. Every department is full and complete. Now is the time to subscribe.

GOOD HEALTH for November is an excellent number. An interesting article on Leprosy is furnished by Dr. Jeffries; also, one on Gymnastics which has a practical value. We can commend this publication to our readers as worthy of support. Address Alexander Moore, Boston.

THE NURSERY for November is a charming number—bright and sparkling in every page—full of good things—and the very best magazine in the world for the "Youngest Readers." Subscribe for it for your little folks. For terms, &c., address publishers of the Nursery, Boston, Mass.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY contains articles on the war in the moon; French Influence at the Vatican; Lota's Missionary Field; About Dogs; The fortunes of Ahmed; Mr. Lincoln and his Petitioners; A Womans Right; A Pilgrimage to Peking; The Fourth of September in Paris; Editorial Notes, Literature at Home, &c. Published by G. P. Putnam & Sons, N. Y.

OLIVER OPTIC'S MAGAZINE is, as usual, full of attractive and instructive reading, and crowded with excellent pictures, including four full-page illustrations. The stories, sketches, poetry, dialogues, and puzzle-department, are admirable; and the magazine, as a whole, is a model of beauty and editorial ability. No other juvenile periodical gives so much reading matter; and it is the only one published in both weekly and monthly editions. Lee & Shepard, 149 Washington Street, Boston; $2.50 per year.

THE LITTLE CORPORAL MAGAZINE for November, is a beautiful number of a most beautiful juvenile—good enough for the most exacting. Since its enlargement and improvement, and the addition of a fine full page and other engravings, THE LITTLE CORPORAL is worthy of a circulation of at least a hundred thousand. The remaining numbers of 1870 are offered free to all who subscribe now for the next year. Don't fail to give your children this sterling juvenile magazine. It is published in Chicago, Illinois, by Sewell & Miller, at one dollar and a half a year, 15 cents for a single copy. Beautiful and generous premiums are given for clubs.

THE RIVERSIDE MAGAZINE for November presents a number of Shakspearean silhouettes—some of which have met us, ascribed to Paul Konewka—with poetry, written to frame them. The building of John's house is continued by Mr. Stockton, and a stirring episode of Indian life in Georgia is given. There is a fiction contradicting the old notion that might makes right, and an admirable account of the manner in which Commodore Hull carried Old Ironsides beyond the clutches of a British fleet, off the capes, in 1812. Mr. Abbott reduces the management of railways to juvenile comprehension. In addition to many other tales and sketches, all judicious and healthy, Anne Silvernail furnishes more of her inimitable drawings, and the miscellaneous are curious and abundant.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY for November is an excellent number. It opens with a pleasant paper on "Footpaths," by Col. Higginson, which is a most interesting acquaintance with New England scenery. Mrs. Stowe has another of the "Oldtown Fireside Stories," as any of its predecessors. Jane G. Austin, under the title of "Highly Explosive," lets her readers into the secret of gunpowder making. "Experiments," by an annonymous author, is what Holmes has called a subjective story. "Joseph and his Friend," and "Four Months with Charles Dickens," are continued. J. S. Dwight discourses upon "Intellectual influence of Music," and there is a brief, but very interesting sketch of "Mr. Burlingame as an Orator." There are numerous and readable book notices.

☞We have received a neat pamphlet of sixty-eight pages, containing a very interesting outline of the proceedings of the Convention of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath-School Association, held at Harrisburg last October. Besides the minutes of proceedings, including reports from nearly all the Counties, a complete list of the Delegates in attendance, a list of the Officers for 1870-71, a copy of the Constitution, a list of the moneyed subscriptions pledged to the convention, and an interesting account by the Secretary of the Lehigh County Association how it was started. It is a valuable document for all friends of the cause in the State. As long as the supply lasts a copy will be sent to any one, free of charge, who will send his or her name (with stamp to pre-pay postage) to Lewis D. Vail, Esq., State Secretary, 703 Sansom Street, Philadelphia.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.—The first number of this illustrated Magazine has reached us. PUTNAM'S MAGAZINE and HOURS AT HOME were noticed in the above-named monthly on the completion of their first volumes. We make mention of the announcement that it is conducted by Dr. J. G. Holland (Timothy Titcomb) is a first-class publication in both weekly and monthly editions. THE LIFE OF CHARLES DICKENS.—By Shelton Mackenzie, Literary Editor of the Philadelphia Daily Press." With Personal Reflections and Anecdotes; Letters by "Boz," never before published; His Last Will in Full; And Unpublished Papers in Prose and Verse. With Portrait and Autograph. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, have just published The Life of Charles Dickens, by Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, Literary Editor of the "Philadelphia Daily Press." It contains, beside a full history of Dickens, his Uncollected Pieces, in Prose and Verse; Personal Recollections and Anecdotes; his Last Will and Testament in full; as well as Letters from Mr. Dickens to various persons, never before published; and traces the entire career of the great Novelist from the time of his birth and the first connection with journalism as a reporter, to its unexpected and lamented death on the 9th of June, 1870. With a full account of the Funeral Services, and Dean Stanley's Funeral Sermon, preached in Westminster Abbey, on the Sunday following the burial. It also contains a new likeness of Charles Dickens, taken from a photograph for which he sat a few days prior to his death, as well as his autograph. The whole is issued in a large duodecimo volume, bound in black Cloth, Red, or Blue Morocco Cloth, gilt side and back. Price Two Dollars a Copy. Agents and Canvassers are wanted, Male and Female, in every town, village, and county in the United States, to engage in selling and getting subscribers to the above work, which is the Best Selling Book ever published. Copies of the work will be sent to any one, per first mail, post-paid, on receipt of Two Dollars by the publishers.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—The large barn of Henry Keller, near Centreville, was destroyed by fire on the night of the 8d inst.

—Joseph Summerland, of Shippensburg, on Monday evening while loading a revolver, for the purpose of shooting rats, accidentally shot himself, three balls entering the calf of his leg.—On Saturday two stragglers called at the house of Samuel Heberlig, in Hopewell township, and asked for something to eat which was given them. After they left it was discovered that a watch was missing. They were pursued and the watch found in their possession. The country is full of these rascals who will bear watching.

FRANKLIN.—On Monday night of last week, a light bay mare was stolen from Mr. Parker Watson, of Mercersburg.—On the 29th ult. Mrs. Lilly Dunean, of Mercersburg, had the fore-finger of her right hand caught in a sausage grinder, and so mangled as to render amputation necessary near the second joint.—Monterey Springs Hotel, with the farm containing 245 acres, was sold at public sale by the assignees of Mr. Yingling, on the 27th ult., for the sum of $15,001. Purchaser, A. J. R. Magruder, of Hagerstown.

FREDERICK.—The barn on the farm of Mr. N. J. Wilson, situated about four and a half miles South of Frederick, ot the point of Rocks road, was recently entirely destroyed by fire, supposed to be the work of an incendiary.—The farmers of Buckeystown District are killing off their hogs for fear they may die of cholera. —Mrs. Sarah C. Keefer, formerly of Frederick, but now residing in Washington City, committed suicide on last Monday evening, by taking poison. She said she was tired of the world—tired of living—and wanted to die.

THE LICENSE SYSTEM.

In a few weeks another Court will be held in Adams county. Preparations are being made for a long session, attended necessarily by a heavy expense to the taxpayers. What cases are on the docket for trial, the writer does not know. Carefully should every citizen study every case, and the cause of these crimes be carefully noted. In the absence of data, we do not hesitate to predict, that in the use of intoxicating drinks, we will find the cause of a very large proportion of crime. We seem to have found a method for causing perpetual motion. Our courts grant license by authority of the citizens of the State; the citizen drinks the spirits thus licensed; he commits crime, and is tried and sentenced by the same Court that issued the license. Death usually stops the motion of the machine.

Let us for a moment look at the matter. The use of ardent spirits, as a beverage, is either a good or an evil, and the traffic therein consequently right or wrong. Now if the use is a benefit, and the traffic right, why throw more restraints around it than other merchandize? And if otherwise, I want to know by what God-given authority any Court dares to license a wrong.

A man is killed. His slayer was intoxicated by drinking whiskey, which was sold by authority of license granted by the same court before which he stands a criminal! In the sight of God, who is the most guilty of the murdered man's blood? Is it the slayer—the Court that granted the license—the man who sold the liquor —or the people who permit such an iniquitous traffic to be legalized? Truly,

"Hell opens wide her mouth,
And gapes, her victims to destroy."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

SUGAR CAKE.—Three cups of sugar, one of sour cream, one of butter, three eggs, one teaspoonful of saleratus, and flour enough to stiffen.

LOAF CAKE.—Three pounds of flour, one and one-half of sugar, one and one-half of butter, six eggs, one half-pint of yeast, spice to suit your taste.

JOHNNY CAKE.—Two cups of Indian meal, one cup of flour, two cups of sweet milk, three tablespoonfuls of molasses, one teaspoonful of soda, salt and bake in flat tins in quick oven. Sour milk will do.

CORN MEAL WAFFLES.—Two eggs, yolks well beaten, one spoonful of butter, one of flour, one pint of sweet milk, one pint of meal twice sifted, half teaspoonful of soda; add last the whites of the eggs well beaten.

LIGHT TENDER ROLLS.—Rub a piece of shortening, the size of a hickory nut into one quart of flour, add a little salt, and enough fresh yeast to make it rise. Warm the water slightly, and make the dough up firm. Let it stand over night, in the morning add a little soda, knead well, and cut out with a biscuit cutter, make a little thicker than biscuit. Let them stand in a warm place to rise, then put in the oven to bake.

ICE PUDDING.—One quart of milk, the yolks of twelve eggs, one pound of sugar, one tablespoonful essence vanilla, one tablespoonful cinnamon, essence of lemon. Put into a porcelain lined sauce pan and stir it over the fire till it is one point from boiling. Let it cool, and afterwards freeze as any other ice. When frozen, let it be well covered with salt and ice for one hour; then mould it with pieces of preserved apricot, cherries, &c. In an hour it will be fit to use.

CARE OF HORSES LEGS.—Few men who handle horses give proper attention to the feet and legs. Especially is this the case on the farms. Much time is spent of a morning rubbing, brushing and smoothing the hair on the sides and hips, but at no time are the feet examined and properly cared for. Now, be it known, that in this six thousand year old world of ours the feet need more care than the body. They need ten times as much—for in one respect they are almost the entire horse. All the grooming that can be done won't avail anything, if the horse is forced to stand where his feet will be filthy. In this case the feet will become disordered, and then the legs will get badly out of fix, and with bad feet and bad legs there is not much else of the horse fit for anything. Stable prisons generally, are terribly severe on the feet and legs of horses, and unless these buildings can afford a dry room, where a horse can walk around, lie down or roll over they are not half so healthy and comfortable to the horse as the pasture, and should be avoided by all good hostlers in the country.

THE Knoxville Press says: "A rather amusing circumstance took place on the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railroad. As the train was approaching Caswells's Station, a woman was seen on the side of the road frantically waving a signal to stop. Supposing that a landslide had occurred, that somebody was lying on the track, or that some other dreadful thing had occured, the conductor stopped the train as soon as possible, and backed up to where the woman was standing, anxiously inquiring what was the matter, when she responded: "Nothing particular, mister. I jist wanted to know if Sary Malviny Thompson's aboard your keers. Sary's my sister."

DODGE'S PATENT

REAPER AND MOWER

AND SELF RAKER.

THIS machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over those machines which have heretofore ranked as first-class. It is a perfect Self-Raker and a superior Mower.

A careful examination will convince any one of its superior merits over all others, in simplicity, strength and durability. As a Self-raking Reaper it has no equal to our knowledge.

The Dodge rake is attached to no other machine in the United States, except to this machine.—Built by the DODGE & STEVENSON Manufacturing Co., Auburn, New York.

READ THE NOTICE OF THE COMPANY TO OUR AGENTS:

Having been informed that certain manufacturers in Ohio and elsewhere are building Reapers, with DODGE'S SELF-RAKE attached, we ask you to furnish us the names of all persons vending or purchasing such machines, as we have never licensed any person or persons to manufacture said SELF-RAKE, or any part thereof, and will prosecute to the full extent of the law all persons manufacturing, selling or using said Self-rake except of our own manufacturing.

JOHN A. DODGE, President.

We have that confidence in this machine that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test it with any other machine they may wish, and keep the one that gives the most satisfaction.

Farmers wanting Droppers attached can be accommodated.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we should refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold, viz:
